

My Great Learning Experience!

#EU #UNESCO

Wainy Lei Weng lan

Marketing Student from the University of Macau

dreamstime.com

First P: Passion!

Passion to Learn

- EEAS (European External Action Service): Inspiring lecture
- European Parliament: Operation of the powerful EU
- UNESCO: Their mission and contributions to world cooperation

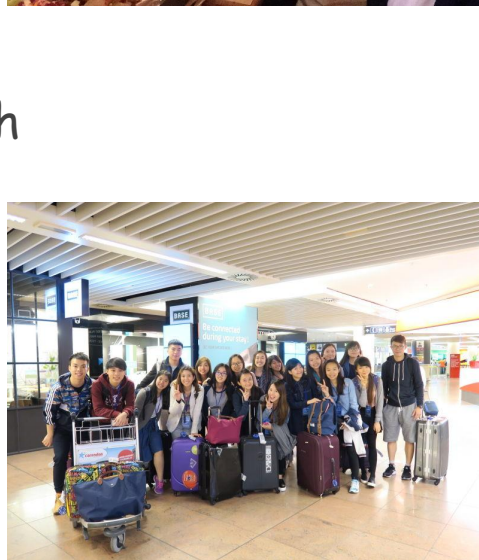

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

Second P: Patience!

— — —

Patience to understand

- Embrace the cultural difference
- Accept different accents in English
- Use body language to communicate
- Move as a group patiently

Third P: Persistence!

— — —

Persistence to adjust and improve

ISPD (International School of Protocol and Diplomacy)

- The importance of protocol and diplomacy
- Plan in details and back-up plans

Third P: Persistence!

— — —

Persistence to adjust and improve

College of Europe

- Improve communication skills
→ Extend social circle
- Develop Worldview
→ Listen to top lecturers
- Organize events actively

Fourth P: Perseverance!

Perseverance to keep trying and experience life

- Be confident in yourself
→ Grab the chance to broaden horizons
- Be an active learner
→ Prepare, be attentive and share your own perspectives
- Be outgoing to extend social circle
→ Talk to peers and foreigners with open-mindedness

Fourth P: Perseverance!

Perseverance to keep trying and experience life

- Be proud to be different
→ Realize your potential and work hard on it!
- Be grateful for the chance
→ Share your knowledge and experience!
- Be the best of yourself (Outstanding delegation)
→ Try your best to contribute to the society!

A million thanks to all of you! :>

Thanks!

DELEGATION OF OUTSTANDING HIGHER EDUCATION STUDENTS
TO THE EUROPEAN UNION AND UNESCO 11-19 June 2016