A Brand New Journey

★ “The world is a book, and the gladdest moment in human life, is a departure into unknown land.”

This trip:

To grow

To think

To reflect

Why did Britain have to leave EU?

Why did America not pay annual fee to UNESCO?

Aroused my interests in generating more new thoughts and tracing the steps of EU and UNESCO

Without wearing professional suits...

Visiting!

Nothing different from other tourists?..

Definitely Not!

Musée d'Orsay

We are learning history and culture

Recognize the social climate background

Special events at that time

Humanism and individual liberation

The cornerstone and progress of French civilization.

Grand Place

“To understand the present, we must first look back at the past”

Marks of conflicts,
wars and revolution

History of the important period of Brussels

Accomplishment and current position of Belgium

Wearing professional suits

UNESCO

Wonderful view

Feelings of tightness and expectancy

UNESCO

Commitment to the world: Bring peace in the minds of men

Spreading peace

Assisting Africa

Encouraging equitable, sustainable development, and gender equality

The officers encourage us to:

Facilitate more competences (innovation, making quality decisions...)

Prepare for achieving the goal

Become a member of UNESCO when necessary

European Union External Action

Many sophisticated and capable guests to give us speeches

Different meaningful issues to simulate our thinking and express ourselves

- Global Strategy for EU's Foreign and Security Policy
- EU-China, Hong Kong and Macao relations
- Erasmus+
- And more...

The latest data and resources about the internal and external works of EU

The speakers keep probing other disciplines to strength their expertise

Inspiring---Education

China

- Huge academic ability's gap between rural and urban students
- Performance discrepancy
- Social mobility is a dream that hard to achieve
- Did not consider the growth of students as the growth of the country

EU

- Measure the whole educational system annually
- Member states are able to learn from each other's successes
- Promote language cultural exchange to enhance mutual learning
- Obtain unprecedented achievement

Gender
