

Procedure for using the results of “Joint Admission Examination for Macao Four Higher Education Institutions” to apply for the member institutions of CRUP and CCISP

Students, who have attended the “JAE”, are intended to apply for the member institutions of CRUP and CCISP

Applying for the member institutions of CRUP and CCISP

Submitting the necessary documents according to the admission requirements of the institutions they intended to apply.

■ Results of JAE

1. Students submit the JAE Results issued by the institution(s) which they have applied for JAE. (If different subjects exam of JAE are arranged by different institutions, students have to apply for each subject results of JAE from the corresponding institutions.)

2. Complete a Declaration for their participation of JAE according to the requirement of the member institutions of CRUP and CCISP. (Sample of Declaration can be downloaded from DSES website.)

■ Other documents required by the institutions they intended to apply

Yes

Need to attend the admission exam

No

Students attend the required subjects exam or interview according to the course requirements.

Notification of admission
The admission result will be notified to the students directly by the institutions which they have applied.