2021 Joint Admission Examination for Macao Four Higher Education Institutions Special arrangements for epidemic prevention and important notes for candidates (issued on 11th Feb 2021)

In order to safeguard the health of candidates and staff, University of Macau, Macao Polytechnic Institute, Macao Institute for Tourism Studies and Macau University of Science and Technology (hereinafter referred to as the “Four Institutions”) will follow the prevention guidelines issued by the Health Bureau of the Macao SAR Government against novel coronavirus epidemics and will take a series of measures for the 2021 Joint Admission Examination for Macao Four Higher Education Institutions (Subjects: Languages and Mathematics) (hereinafter referred to as “JAE”), such as environmental hygiene in the examination venues, seating arrangements and hygiene administration of working personnel.

Candidates should pay attention to the following special arrangements and important notes for anti-epidemic approaches to be implemented by the Four Institutions. Candidates must also stay alert to any updates on below existing preventive measures, if any, which may be adjusted subject to the actual epidemic development and the latest guidelines to be issued by the Macao Health Bureau.

Before the Examination

1. Candidates should pay attention to the epidemic news* released by the Macao SAR Government, follow the advices as suggested by the Macao Health Bureau and pay attention to your personal, home and environmental hygiene.
2. To minimize the risk of contracting the novel coronavirus, candidates are advised to avoid leaving Macao or commuting across borders, especially not to visit to countries/regions where the Macao SAR Government has announced a centralised isolation medical observation and health self-management will be required upon arrival in Macao.
3. Candidates who are undergoing the medical observation or health self-management as required by the Macao Health Bureau are not allowed to take the examination.
4. To avoid gathering, candidates should check in advance the seating locations of each subject stated on the JAE Examination Permit from the Examination Venue announced on JAE webpage.
